

Adera's SAIL wins Best Low-Rise Residential in Vancouver/North Shore at 2014 UDI Awards for Excellence

November 27, 2014, Vancouver — At the biennial 30th Anniversary Gala of the Urban Development Institute's 2014 Awards for Excellence in Urban Development, Adera's SAIL project at UBC's Wesbrook Village won the Best Low-Rise Residential in Vancouver/North Shore.

"It's an honour to be recognized by our peers in the B.C. development industry," said Adera president Norm Couttie. "SAIL has pushed the boundaries of innovation, as the first-ever building awarded the REAP Platinum home certification at UBC. It is the most sustainable urban development on campus, as well as the first six-storey pure wood-frame residential building at UBC."

SAIL has won numerous awards including a Georgie Award for Best Multi-Family Low-Rise Development, a U.S. Gold Nugget Merit Award for Sustainable Residential Community and a national Grand SAM Award for Best New Home (Multi-Family).

About Adera

Adera is the largest Built Green builder in B.C. and has won multiple Gold Georgie awards, including the second-ever Platinum Georgie, Best Multi-Family Home Builder five times, Best Customer Service seven times, and the first ever Customer Choice Award. In addition to numerous Canadian SAM Awards, including two Grand SAMs, Adera was the first Canadian recipient of an international Gold Nugget Award in 46 years.

SAIL is winner of the Best Low-Rise Residential in Vancouver/North Shore and the first six-storey wood-frame development [and the first REAP Platinum Certified building] at UBC.

Additionally, here is a list of finalists for the Georgie Awards. Stay tuned to see how well we do in 2015!
